Divas breathe

Generous people breathe deep but real divas let it go. Think Pavarotti.

PROCESS

Focus on your breathe...for two minutes each day.

Take the first minute to just notice. Don't change anything. No judgment...just be with it. Place your attention equally on the inhale and the exhale.

- Where is your breath centered?
- In your chest?
- In your abdomen?
- Is it full or shallow?
- Soft and smooth?
- Forced and tense?

Diya breathe

Generous people breathe deep but real divas let it go. Think Pavarotti.

For the second minute, place your attention on the exhale.

Do you trust your body to release tension & stress? Repeat the exercise from the first minute but this time place awareness on your exhale.

Imagine seeing your stress disperse ... as much as it can. Don't demand complete discharge. Take the attitude that your body will let go of as much stored disturbances as it is able.
